Truman Tucker

The end of the world, a year ago, was for many a new beginning. Five strangers travel a nuclear wasteland in search of survival and meaning, when they come across a mysterious note promising hope to the north. A night of rest before their journey north brings out the insecurities and demons that the end times have helped in vanquishing.

After setting out to find the facility Samuel had written about, the group discovers two people that could change the course of humanity forever. Their harrowing journey to a facility they don't even know the certain existence of brings misfortune and tragedy.

After the devastating losses suffered by Mike, Andrea, and Celeste, there might just be a chance at redemption and stability – but getting there is not going to be easy.
