Book Description

Many introductions to the New Testament are either too simple, not providing all the necessary information, or overly complicated and written at a level out of the reach of an average person with no seminary training. This work is neither. The author is thorough, (providing over 200 footnotes), but at a level that is understandable, and in a concise manner.

In this work Weaver discusses issues of:

- authorship
- date
- location of writing
- recipients
- purpos
- book message

He also addresses more challenging subjects, such as:

- the synoptic "problem"
- the ending of the Gospel of Mark
- the northern and southern Galatia theories
- the genre of Hebrews
- the slavific status of the readers of Hebrews
- justification in the epistle of James
- interpretive approaches to the book of 1 John
- interpretive approaches to the book of Revelation

Weaver provides important background information concerning the following biblical cities:

- Corinth
- Ephesus
- Philippi
- Colossae
- Thessalonica

For those who are visual learners, a plethora of charts are provided including:

- The Seven Signs in John's Gospel

- The Messianic Prophecies of Matthew's Gospel
- Paul's Interactions with the Corinthian Church
- Paul's Roman Imprisonments Contrasted
- "these things" clauses in 1 John
- Literature of the New Testament Books
- The Writers of the New Testament
- and Chronology of the New Testament

Also included is a link to a FREE online course by the author to complement the book (the first half is already available, the remainder to be completed shortly). This course is also entitled, "Introducing the New Testament Books"

In this volume, the author demonstrates that he is passionate about providing high quality resources at an affordable price within the reach of everyone serious about studying God's Word.
