This never worked. The packets never got away. Egram didn't know she was beautiful but she knew she had this effect on men who had never seen her before. She knew that once the packet made a move to get away its value would go down. By the time the packet started its getaway attempt, Egram had already started a mental countdown in anticipation of the packet's move. What runs through the Trader's mind when he sees the packet move to get away is the loss of all the time he spent sewing, the beatings he's taken and the payment he hasn't received. Before the Trader has an opportunity to cry out the whole ordeal is over. When the packet moves Egram simply blocks its way. At moments like this, her job was so much like going through the motions. The packet remained in the Trader's possession. Relieved the...
