A Moment of Clarity

There's something strange about Clarity. When Morgan is sent to interview Jonas Redford, the power behind the ministerial company, he thinks he will finally get to the bottom of the accusations against Clarity. But when the interview is cut short, it looks like Morgan will never get the answers he needs. That is until his fated meeting with D'mon.

D'mon, an alien from Mitakan, takes a human form and brings a telepathic warning to Morgan and the rebel group resisting the tyranny of censorship. Earth's Ministry has been stealing and burning books, destroying the freedom of the written and spoken word. And D'mon's home planet is responsible.

Mitakan has taken control and altered the course of Earth's history since the 1920s. Clarity works for Mitakan. Their common aim is to keep logs of everything you've ever done in your life and influence your future actions. The question is: where does D'mon's revelation fit into all of this?

R. L. Robinson and E. C. Forbes come together to offer you a labyrinthine treat. A Moment of Clarity shows a future Tokyo, and Earth, as a neon maze of corruption and time manipulation. This story is a gritty cyberpunk with expert noir overtones. It thrusts you full force into a world of interspatial weaving and holo-ads and makes you confront a company that is in the business of paradigm engineering. A Moment of Clarity will leave you questioning everything you know.
