A collection of 28 games adapted for the classroom and designed to give students a chance to use French in new ways (i.e., application and analysis levels on the thinking skills taxonomy for better and more permanent learning). The games were classroom tested in an average sort of high school, starting with beginning classes, over a 5-year period. Based on that experience, there are for each game suggestions how to organize and supervise the game as well as game materials, or patterns for them, or items you can use, or sample items you can adapt, depending on the game
