Mary Jemison - The True Story Rayna Gangi

The true story of Mary Jemison, the Scot-Irish girl captured by the Shawnee and French and "gifted" to two Seneca sisters. Mary once owned a large portion of what is now Orchard State Park in upstate New York. Her story is not only one of courage and fortitude, but of a journey toward love of a culture and spirituality that she would call her own.

It is the only version of Mary Jemison's story sanctioned as true by the Seneca nation.
