Resilient Classrooms, First Edition: Creating Healthy Environments for Learning (The Guilford Practical Intervention in the Schools Series) Beth Doll Phd, Steven Zucker Phd, Katherine Brehm Phd
Grounded in cutting-edge theory and research, this book presents innovative, classroom-based strategies for promoting the academic competence and mental health of students at risk. Easy-to-implement procedures are described that enlist the involvement of school practitioners, teachers, and students in creating nurturing, success-oriented classroom environments. Readers are guided step by step to understand what makes a classroom a healthy place to learn; recognize when essential socioemotional supports are missing; intervene to put those supports in place; and demonstrate the positive effects on student learning and development. The volume is designed for maximum ease of use with a large-size format and lay-flat binding. Special features include helpful reproducible worksheets and forms.

This book is in The Guilford Practical Intervention in the Schools Series.
