Byrd family; Stockton family; Coates family; Paschall family; Morris family; Herman family; Van Rensselaer family; Page family; Carter family; Carroll family; Keith family; Graeme family; Harrison family; Randolph family; Livingston family

When the Revolution broke out it was to the representatives of these powerful families that the people turned for leaders, and in few cases were they disappointed in their choice.

It is of a few such families and the homes which they built in the land of their adoption, and which their descendants continued to occupy generation after generation, that this volume will speak.
