Neal A. Maxwell's Final Writings Neal A. Maxwell

Promise of Discipleship: Discipleship is demanding, but it yields great rewards. Elder Maxwell observed that “the things of the world do not compare with the adventure of discipleship, the trek of treks.” In one of the last books he wrote, he provides help for those on the path of discipleship.

Whom the Lord Loveth: This beloved apostle generously shares with readers the doctrinal basis of his own admiration and adoration of Jesus and identifies the source of the spiritual energy required for true conversion. In doing so he invites us to make the necessary mid-course correction in behavior and attitude that will keep us on course in our own journey of discipleship.

Moving in His Majesty and Power: Filled with original thoughts expressed in his distinctive and lyrical style and celebrating his love of the Lord, this book is vintage Elder Maxwell and a fitting benediction to his vast body of inspirational writings.
