Key features: In the next few years, up to 40% of the CEO's of family-held businesses will retire, necessitating some serious ownership decisions that can not be made lightly. Rickertsen also discusses some of the politics and emotions of selling a family- or privately- held company, and how to resolve such issues without compromising on the result. From the Foreword by Michael Lewis: In Buyout [Rickertsen] sought to put you beyond the greedy grasp of Wall Street investment bankers.
