A Handy Resource Guide Filled with Current Rate Tables You Can Use to Estimate Shipping Cost

A new seller to Amazon, Etsy or eBay simply wants to know how much it will cost to ship their items so they can calculate gross margins and determine whether a product they sell will make them money. They don't want to be given glossed over information which doesn't provide them assurance they are getting the cheapest rate. This guide cuts to the chase with detailed rate tables from USPS, FedEx and UPS for the cheapest classes of shipping service and ways to obtain the lowest discounts. This book is designed as a comprehensive resource you can come back to again and again.

We'll explain to you the advantages and disadvantages of each class of postal service and not waste your time with levels of service which we think are ridiculous. We don't tell you to go to the eBay Global Shipping Program where all you see is a black box. Our goal is to empower you to understand how sites like eBay, Amazon, Stamps.com, Endicia and Shipping Easy charge you for postage.

A handy reference guide, this book not only details the ins and outs of Domestic Shipping, but also discusses International Shipping and provides detailed rate tables by service class.

Margins matter when it comes to making a profit. How to Get Cheap Shipping for What You Sell on the Internet is an invaluable guide to helping you understand how to make quick and conscious choices to make your business succeed and win!
