The Mountains Roar II Charles

I know what it is to be stoned, jeered at, ridiculed, and preached against. I understand what it must have been like in the Old Testament of the Bible to be a prophetic voice or to claim to be one.

So much of today's prophetic voice is cushioned to satisfy theology and traditional beliefs. When one speaks as I do, it can be easy to discard these beliefs and just move on, for "no one knows the hour or the day."

This book I have written is meant to try and urge the unbeliever to examine the Scriptures and also to make all aware that it could be later than you think. This book will quote Scripture and give you proven facts that are a result of NASA studies and time supplemented by revelation. My book is not intended to cause fear but to create hope—the hope that Christ will not fail us and that the world is not coming to an end but that we will just be moving into the millennium or one thousand years in paradise with the Lord.

The question is whether you know where you would spend eternity if you die tonight. All that I am saying is that it could be closer than you think!

This all came to me by revelation, and it is all factual detail supplied mostly by NASA research of time and the universe's alignment. Please don't miss the opportunity to see the perfection and completion of time. God is!
